

Last year for my birthday, Cyndie gave me a jar full of yeses.
I think it was about the sweetest gift I've ever received.

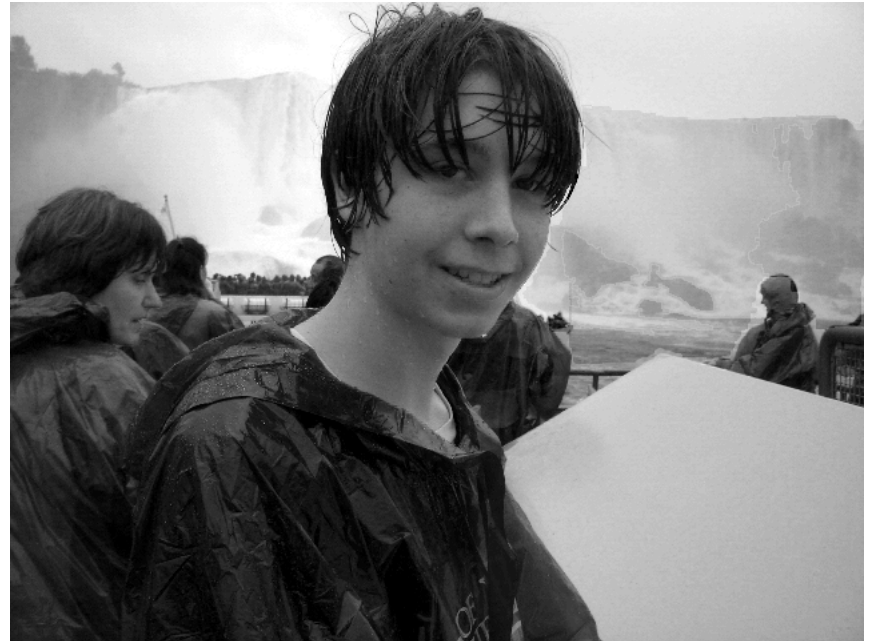

We are still happily unmarried.

My best friend with her best friend

Ben is a junior at Watershed High. He spends his time making aerosol art and hip-hop beats.

In August, Ben and I took a road trip through Canada. I loved the friendly old world feel of Montreal. Ben loved the incredible graffiti art scene in Toronto. We both got wet at Niagara Falls.

Life is good.
