

Still Life

We like going to the YWCA in the morning

David

Cyndie

Cyndie's daughter Emery lives in Philadelphia

David's son Ben lives with Creanna in Minneapolis

Life is never still, but it's still life.

Ũ 0 Ø I 0 8 0 D At sixty I sometimes feel I should have arrived by David continues to be a ĕ now. But then I remember playful and loving traveling that I'm always arriving, companion. Regardless of every day, every hour, the road conditions. every minute. The best times are when Cyndie and I am the lucky one. I are arriving together. I am the lucky one. 2GETHER

> Watercolor painting and cartoon drawings by Cyndie. Photo of Cyndie by Briana Goetzen of Orange Spiral Arts. Contact David and see what else he's thinking about these days at just.thinkofit.com